Service Opportunity Chairpersons needed for Corrections

Calgary Corrections Committee aims to provide chairpersons to conduct more than 30 AA meetings per month at the three Corrections facilities in Calgary — Calgary Young Offenders Centre (CYOC); Calgary Corrections Centre (Spyhill); and Calgary Remand Centre. CYOC and Remand each have separate mens' and womens' meetings.

While there is a dedicated core of chairpersons, there is need for more names on the chair roster at various facilities to chair one hour-long AA meeting per month.

If you are interested in "carrying the message" at a Corrections facility, here is the process:

- Contact the Corrections committee at: cgsccorrections@gmail.com to express your interest and obtain necessary forms.
- Stop in any Calgary Police Service office to apply for necessary security clearance. (It may take four to six weeks to actually receive clearance letter in mail.)
- Once you receive your clearance letter, contact Corrections committee again, advise that you have your clearance and find out when the next orientation meeting will be held at the jail where you will be chairing meetings. Once you complete orientation you will be added to the chair roster.

Requirements:

- Minimum one year of sobriety
- Hopefully the ability to commit to chair one meeting per month for at least one year.

If you are interested in a rewarding service opportunity — may sound intimidating, but meetings are a non-threatening environment — contact Calgary Corrections chair at: cgsccorrections@gmail.com for forms and details.

These are opportunities to "carry the message" and you never know when something said at that meeting may make all the difference.

Step & Tradition 6

Step 6 – Were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character.

So Step Six—"Were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character"—is A.A.'s way of stating the best possible attitude one can take in order to make a beginning on this lifetime job. This does not mean that we expect all our character defects to be lifted out of us as the drive to drink was. A few of them may be, but with most of them we shall have to be content with patient improvement. The key words "entirely ready" underline the fact that we want to aim at the very best we know or can learn.

How many of us have this degree of readiness? In an absolute sense practically nobody has it. The best we can do, with all the honesty that we can summon, is to try to have it. Even then the best of us will discover to our dismay that there is always a sticking point, a point at which we say, "No, I can't give this up yet." And we shall often tread on even more dangerous ground when we cry, "This I will never give up!" Such is the power of our instincts to overreach themselves. No matter how far we have progressed, desires will always be found which oppose the grace of God.

Some who feel they have done well may dispute this, so let's try to think it through a little further. Practically everybody wishes to be rid of his most glaring and destructive handicaps. No one wants to be so proud that he is scorned as a braggart, nor so greedy that he is labeled a thief. No one wants to be angry enough to murder, lustful enough to rape, gluttonous enough to ruin his health. No one wants to be agonized by the chronic pain of envy or to be paralyzed by sloth. Of course, most human beings don't suffer these defects at these rock-bottom levels.

We who have escaped these extremes are apt to congratulate ourselves. Yet can we? After all, hasn't it been self-interest, pure and simple, that has enabled most of us to escape? Not much spiritual effort is involved in avoiding excesses which will bring us punishment anyway. But when we face up to the less violent aspects of these very same defects, then where do we stand?

From Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions, p.65-66.

Tradition 6 – An A.A. group ought never endorse, finance or lend the A.A. name to any related facility or outside enterprise, lest problems of money, property and prestige divert us from our primary purpose.

The moment we saw that we had an answer for alcoholism, it was reasonable (or so it seemed at the time) for us to feel that we might have the answer to a lot of other things. The A.A. groups, many thought, could go into business, might finance any enterprise whatever in the total field of alcoholism. In fact, we felt duty-bound to throw the whole weight of the A.A. name behind any meritorious cause.

Here are some of the things we dreamed. Hospitals didn't like alcoholics so we thought we'd build a hospital chain of our own. People needed to be told what alcoholism was, so we'd educate the public, even rewrite school and medical textbooks. We'd gather up derelicts from skid rows, sort out those who could get well, and make it possible for the rest to earn their livelihood in a kind of quarantined confinement. Maybe these places would make large sums of money to carry on other good works...

Yes, we of A.A. did dream those dreams. How natural that was, since most alcoholics are bankrupt idealists. Nearly every one of us had wished to do great good, perform great deeds, and embody great ideals. We are all perfectionists who, failing perfection, have gone to the other extreme and settled for the bottle and the blackout. Providence, through A.A., had brought us within reach of our highest expectations.

Whereupon we tried A.A. hospitals—they all bogged down because you cannot put an A.A. group into business; too many busybody cooks spoil the broth. A.A. groups had their fling at education, and when they began to publicly whoop up the merits of this or that brand, people became confused. Did A.A. fix drunks or was it an educational project? Was A.A. spiritual or was it medical? Was it a reform movement?...

These adventures implanted a deep-rooted conviction that in no circumstances could we endorse any related enterprise, no matter how good. We, of Alcoholics Anonymous could not be all things to all men, nor should we try.

From Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions, p.155-156.
