"Bridging the Gap (BTG) "...

Bridging the Gap helps to soften the transition for individuals from treatment to an AA life.

Curious how you can serve the AA community? Haven't been to a Bridging the Gap meeting for a while?

Bridging the Gap meets the third Thursday of every month at 7:00pm. Hybrid format. All are welcome! Central Office: 4021 4th Street SE, Calgary

Zoom ID: 945 772 8029 PW: BTG

- Help carry the message to treatment and detox centres. Attend our monthly BTG meeting to find out how.
- 2. Can you help Bridge the Gap with Calgary Young Offenders and AA?

Bridging the Gap (BTG) is working with Calgary Young Offenders Centre (CYOC) to recruit male temporary contacts to work with young offenders (age 12-17 years) upon release. This commitment starts with your attendance at the final release meetings with youth client, parents and CYOC professional. Once placed you will introduce the client into the fellowship and rooms of AA and help ensure the transition into AA a less stressful and fearful step. We are looking for temporary contacts in all quadrants of Calgary.

Minimum one year sobriety, vulnerable police check and CWIS check completed by Child Welfare required.

Some stories include:

Happy Hour

Very early, three mornings a week, I hop on my bike and ride to the building that houses my home group. It's a short ride through the streets of this old California beach city.

80 Years & Counting!

My home group is Kearny Sunday Night Live Easy But Think First, which meets in Kearny, New Jersey. Our home group's birth date is June 1, 1942

10,000 Stories

One of the most humbling experiences that I have had during my sober life happened a while back. One of our fellows called me and asked some very straightforward questions.

In the Shadow of Zion

After I recently completed a 35-day program to get sober, I returned home to Utah. A month later, my husband died. I was so desperate for AA.

Helping Our Own

I was a federal tax court judge being investigated for tax evasion. I was ashamed. I was obsessed with what others thought of me, what they said about me and how they viewed me.

Lost & Found in Central America

When I was newly sober and going to sea as a merchant mariner, my sponsor Cliff told me, "For every new meeting, walk into it as if it were your home group.

Tough Crowd

Sometime in my first couple of weeks sober in 1985, I wandered into the Men's Monday Night Step meeting.

TRADITION TIDBITS

By Bill W.

(co-founder, Alcoholics Anonymous)

Perhaps there is no suffering more horrible than drug addiction, especially that kind which is produced by morphine, heroin, and other narcotics. Such drugs twist the mind, and the awful process of withdrawal racks the sufferer's body. Compared with the addict and his woes, we alcoholics are pikers. Barbiturates, carried to extremes, can be almost as bad. In A.A. we have members who have made great recoveries from both the bottle and the needle. We also have a great many others who were — or still are — victimized by "goofballs" and even by the new tranquilizers.

Consequently, this problem of drug addiction in its several forms lies close to us all. It stirs our deepest interest and sympathy. In the world around us, we see legions of men and women who are trying to cure or escape their problems by this means. Many A.A.'s, especially those who have suffered these particular addictions, are now asking, "What can we do about drugs — within our Fellowship, and without?"

• • •

Now there are certain things that A.A. cannot do for anybody, regardless of what our several desires or sympathies may be.

Our first duty, as a society, is to insure our own survival. Therefore, we have to avoid distractions and multipurpose activity. An A.A. group, as such, cannot take on all the personal problems of its members, let alone the problems of the whole world.

Sobriety — freedom from alcohol — through the teaching and practice of the Twelve Steps is the sole purpose of an A.A. group. Groups have repeatedly tried other activities, and they have always failed. It has also been learned that there is no possible way to make non-alcoholics into A.A. members. We have to confine our membership to alcoholics, and we have to confine our A.A. groups to a single purpose. If we don't stick to these principles, we shall almost surely collapse. And if we collapse, we cannot help anyone.

Therefore, I see no way of making non-alcoholic addicts into A.A. members. Experience says loudly that we can admit no exceptions, even though drug users and alcoholics happen to be first cousins of a sort. If we persist in trying this, I'm afraid it will be hard on the drug user himself, as well as on A.A. We must accept the fact that no non-alcoholic, whatever his affliction, can be converted into an alcoholic A.A. member.

A.A. members who are so inclined should be encouraged to band together in groups to deal with sedative and drug problems. But they ought to refrain from calling themselves A.A. groups.

There seems to be no reason why several A.A.s cannot join, if they wish, with a group of straight addicts to solve the alcohol and the drug problem together. But, OBVIOUSLY, such a dual-purpose group should not insist that it be called an A.A. group, nor should it use the A.A. name in its title. Neither should its straight addict contingent be led to believe that they have become A.A. members by reason of such an association.

Step 5 & Tradition 5

Step 5 - Admitted to God, to ourselves and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs.

Having made our personal inventory, what shall we do about it? We have been trying to get a new attitude, a new relationship with our Creator, and to discover the obstacles in our path. We have admitted certain defects, we have ascertained in a rough way what the trouble is; we have put our finger on the weak items in our personal inventory. Now these are about to be cast out. This requires action on our part, which, when completed, will mean that we have admitted to God, to ourselves, and to another human being, the exact nature of our defects. This brings us to the Fifth Step in the program of recovery mentioned in the preceding chapter.

This is perhaps difficult – especially discussing our defects with another person. We think we have done well enough in admitting these things to ourselves. There is doubt about that. In actual practice, we usually find a solitary self-appraisal insufficient. Many of us thought it necessary to go much further. We will be more reconciled to discussing ourselves with another human being when we see good reasons why we should do so. The best reason first: If we skip this vital step, we may not overcome drinking. Time after time newcomers have tried to keep to themselves certain facts about their lives. Trying to avoid this humbling experience, they turned to easier methods. Almost invariably, they got drunk. Having persevered with the rest of the program, they wondered why they fell. We think the reason is that they never completed their housecleaning. They took inventory all right, but hung on to some of the worst items in stock. They only thought they had lost their egoism and fear; they only thought they had humbled themselves. But they had not learned enough of humility, fearlessness and honesty, in the sense we find it necessary, until they told someone all of their life story.

From Alcoholics Anonymous, Chapter 6 Into Action p.72-73

Tradition 5 – Each group has but one primary purpose – to carry its message to the alcoholic who still suffers.

"Shoemaker, stick to thy last! ", better do one thing supremely well than many badly. That is the central theme of this Tradition. Around it our Society gathers in unity. The very life of our Fellowship requires the preservation of this principle.

Alcoholics Anonymous can be likened to a group of physicians who might find a cure for cancer, and upon whose concerted work would depend the answer for sufferers of this disease. True, each physician in such a group might have his own specialty. Every doctor concerned would at times wish he could devote himself to his chosen field rather than work only with the group. But once these men had hit upon a cure, once it became apparent that only by their united effort could this be accomplished, then all of them would feel bound to devote themselves solely to the relief of cancer. In the radiance of such a miraculous discovery any doctor would set his other ambitions aside, at whatever personal cost.

Just as firmly bound by obligation are the members of Alcoholics Anonymous, who have demonstrated that they can help problem drinkers as others seldom can. The unique ability of each A.A. to identify himself with and bring recovery to, the newcomer in no way depends upon his learning, eloquence, or on any special individual skills. The only thing that matters is that he is an alcoholic who has found a key to sobriety...

It is the great paradox of A.A. that we know we can seldom keep the precious gift of sobriety unless we give it away. If a group of doctors possessed a cancer cure, they might be conscience-stricken if they failed their mission through self-seeking. Yet such a failure wouldn't jeopardize their personal survival. For us, if we neglect those who are still sick, there is unremitting danger to our own lives and sanity. Under these compulsions of self-preservation, duty, and love, it is not strange that our Society has concluded that it has but one high mission—to carry the A.A. message to those who don't know there's a way out.
